RELIGION. Three of the major religions of the world, the monotheistic faiths of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, all began in the Middle East. The three faiths are inextricably intertwined: Jews, Christians and Muslims all worship the same God, their prophetic traditions are linked, and much of the religious law, doctrines, and views of morality and the afterlife are similar. The histories of the three monotheistic traditions are also closely connected. Judaism arose first, almost two thousand years BCE, and Christianity was born from within the Jewish community and tradition. Hundreds of years ago, Learn and revise about the Islamic world in the Middle Ages and what Christian Western Europe learnt from its neighbour with BBC Bitesize KS3 History. Throughout the Middle Ages, the Muslim world was more advanced than Christian Western Europe, which learned a huge amount from its neighbour. Part of. History. The Middle Ages (12th to 15th century).
