It was the story of a journey that led me to live with the Amish. Everyday Sacred is the story of another journey, a journey to learn about the sacred in my own life. My need to learn was connected to the harsh judge, but I didn't understand the connection until I had almost completed this book. Not everyone has a harsh judge, but many of us have some inner voice that has the power to undercut, to make us doubt ourselves and leaves us wondering why we aren't more content. To begin to make every day sacred, I first had to step back and look at the judge and everything else in my life. Maybe I w
