The Behind the Book Lect

Robinson Crusoe by Daniel Defoe

"Robinson Crusoe" If you were on an island and you got to be king of that world, how would you rule? Would you be a benevolent ruler or a tyrant? Would you be a colonizer or a colonized? This novel forces readers to struggle with this question.

Gunther Schuller - Topic. 7:33. Gunther Schuller was probably the greatest friend jazz ever had from the classical world. A jazz devotee from the beginning, he was the most outspoken advocate of a fusion between elements of European classical music and jazz, inventing the term "third stream" at a 1957 Brandeis University lecture to describe it.
