Significance of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults for the Christian initiation of handicapped persons

Michael Downey

Date of Award
1-1-1980

Document Type
Research Paper

Superseded Degree Name
Master of Arts in Education

Colleges & School
Cardinal Stritch College

Degree Granted By
Cardinal Stritch College

First Advisor
Sister Gabrielle Kowalski, O.S.F.

Library of Congress Subject Heading
Initiation rites--Religious aspects--Catholic Church; People with disabilities--Public opinion; People with disabilities--Religious life; People with disabilities--Vocational guidance

Abstract
The problem which this paper intends to deal with is the applicability of this new rite to the process of initiation of handicapped persons. Does this new rite mean anything at all to handicapped persons who are to be initiated into the Church, or to those who are concerned about the initiation of the handicapped person?

Rights
Open Access

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.stritch.edu/etd/509

Is this full-text open access?
1