Finding my Soul "sister". By Thriftbooks.com User, February 25, 2000. when our identical twin daughters were in their early twos, I found myself going "mad" with their demands and the demands that I put on myself as a stay-at-home telecommuting mother/publicist and healthcare professional in private practice in a university town on the prairie. i would stop off at our small bookstore/coffeehouse and stare into space until wone afternoon. I found myself staring into the bookshelves.
