E-Text of Sir Gawain and the Green Knight. Sir Gawain is one of Arthur's trusty knights, and Sir Gawain and the Green Knight is a looong poem about him. This poem is part of the medieval romance tradition, which means it focuses on the journey or quest of a single knight (here, Sir Gawain) and what he learns about himself and his culture in the process of pursuing a great adventure. The noble Gawain accepts the challenge of a mysterious knight. Nope, not a black one or a dark one. A green one. Sir Gawain was written in northwestern England in the late 14th century... yep, meaning the 1300s. It also has a lot of holdovers from Anglo-Saxon, the language spoken in England before it mixed with French. What does that mean for you? Well, you'll probably be reading the poem translated into modern English.
